The undersigned, Ike Goodwin, and John Cooks, loyal freedmen, of the Creek Nation, being duly sworn and examined, do, jointly, depose and say: They are not interested in the claim of the above Redman Kernell in any pecuniary manner whatever: that they have heard the foregoing affidavit read to them, and know its contents to be true and correct in every particular; and,
that, of their own knowledge, the said Claimant,
at the time he fled his home, and went to Kansas, did own and possess, and did necessarily abandon and lose all the property set forth in his deposition.

Further these deponents do not say.

Awards

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony. Also the status of claimant. The amount claimed, however, is in some instances considered excessive. Upon inquiry, it is found the values of the different kinds of property, at the time the loss occurred, ruled as follows:-

|                   |               |
|-------------------|---------------|
| Cattle:-          | $500. Each.- |
| Horses:-          | 20.00 "       |
| Hogs:-            | 2.00 "        |
| Corn per bushel:- | 50 "          |

and for the following one-half the claimed value:-

|                                      |         |
|--------------------------------------|---------|
| Turning Lathes & Tools:-             | $23.00 |
| Household & Kitchen Furniture &c.    | 75.00   |
| Agricultural Implements, Harness &c. | 10.00   |

In consideration of these and all other facts attainable bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant Redman Kennell, Three hundred and thirty eight dollars.-
